Ayodhya verdict: Ahead of meet, many in AIMPLB favour review petition

ABANTIKA GHOSH
NEW DELHI, NOVEMBER 13

AHEAD OF THE All India Muslim Personal Law Board's (AIMPLB) working committee meeting on November 17, a "dominant view" is emerging within the organisation that a review petition should be filed in Supreme Court on its verdict in the Ram Janmabhoomi-Babri Masjid case, said sources. "The dominant view emerging within the board is that we have fought this for so long and we should file a review petition. However, there is another view that what has happened is done. They feel it (filing a review petition) will be a waste of time. A final picture will emerge only after the working committee meets," said a source.

A section within AIMPLB believes that since the judgment was unanimous, there is little "ray of hope" for a review petition.

The Supreme Court on Saturday ruled that the disputed area be handed over to a trust for construction of a Ram Temple. The court, however, held that the act of placing idols inside the mosque in 1949 was "desecration", that there is no evidence that Babri Masjid was built after demolishing a temple and that the 1992 demolition of the mosque was against the rule of law.

The court also ruled that Muslims be given a five-acre plot for construction of a mosque.

There are differences within the community about whether the five-acre land should be accepted.

"There is a proposal for a review petition but no call can be taken before the working committee meets... whatever the decision, the aim will be to build consensus," said AIMPLB secretary and advocate Zafaryab Jilani, who argued the case for the Muslim parties.

Another member of the board said various Muslim organisations are holding internal meetings to arrive at a decision.

India denies Bangla reports on PM pat for CJ

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, NOVEMBER 13

INDIA ON Wednesday termed as "malicious" and "fake" reports by a section of Bangladesh media that claim Prime Minister Narendra Modi congratulated Chief Justice of India Ranjan Gogoi over the Ayodhya verdict. Ministry of External Affairs spokesperson Raveesh Kumar tweeted, "We strongly condemn those responsible for deliberately spreading such fake and malicious news, to divide communities, create disharmony and undermine friendship between the people of India and Bangladesh."

The Indian High Commission in Dhaka too issued a statement: "It has come to the notice of the High Commission that a letter said to have been written by Prime Minister of India Narendra Modi to Chief Justice of India is being circulated in the local media." The High Commission said, "This letter is completely fake and malicious. It is intended to mislead people in Bangladesh and create social disharmony," it added. The High Commission said it was "most egregious" and "wrong" on the part of those who are deliberately circulating fake and incorrect information to create misunderstanding about India in the public domain.

Cong MP urges Sonowal to rethink choice of NRC coordinator

ABHISHEK SAHA
GUWAHATI, NOVEMBER 13

CONGRESS'S BARPETA MP Abdul Khaleque on Wednesday wrote to Assam Chief Minister Sarbananda Sonowal, urging him to reconsider the appointment of Hitesh Dev Sharma as the new NRC state coordinator.

Sarma, a 1989-batch Assam civil service officer, was appointed last week after the incumbent, Prateek Hajela, was released from duty for inter-cadre deputation to MP after a Supreme Court order.

Khaleque wrote that Sarma was neither "unbiased nor trustworthy" and referred to his "posts on Facebook". In a post on February 13, Sarma said there were "lakhs and lakhs of Bangladeshis in the NRC". In another post on November 15, 2017, he said, "Minority appeasement policy for the last seven decades has changed the definition of secularism."
