Pilot meets Sonia: 'Will take up any role party gives'

MANOJCG
NEW DELHI, NOVEMBER 12

AS THE Congress leadership gives final touches to the reshuffle of the Ashok Gehlot Cabinet and reorganisation of the party organisation in Rajasthan, senior party leader Sachin Pilot on Friday met Congress president Sonia Gandhi. Pilot, sources said, is no more averse to taking up a role in the AICC.

Pilot's meeting with Sonia came a day after Chief Minister Gehlot met her. The Congress leadership is said to be keen to bring Pilot to Delhi as an AICC general secretary but he was reportedly reluctant to move out of Rajasthan as taking up a post without ensuring that his loyalists have been suitably accommodated would have sent out a wrong signal.

Sources said the reshuffle, being worked out in Delhi, could be to his satisfaction.

BAGHEL MEETS SONIA OVER UP ELECTIONS

New Delhi: Chhattisgarh Chief Minister Bhupesh Baghel met Congress president Sonia Gandhi and AICC general secretary in charge of Uttar Pradesh Priyanka Gandhi Vadra on Friday. The meeting lasted about 30 minutes. Sources said the discussion was about the party's preparations for the Uttar Pradesh Assembly elections. Baghel is the Congress's observer for the UP elections. ENS

"I had a very good meeting with the Congress president. I gave her my feedback about the political situation in Rajasthan, the functioning of the government and the organisation and what all we should do... we should work even more harder to win the mandate of the people again in the elections, which are just about 22 months away," Pilot said after the meeting.

On taking up a national role, Pilot said, "Whatever the Congress party wants me to do, I am more than happy to do. For the past 20 years, whatever job I have been assigned, I have done it diligently, with all my dedication and effort, and now also whatever the party decides, what role I have to do... I am happy to do that."

"I am happy Mrs Gandhi took feedback from all of us. I think at the right time, AICC general secretary Mr [Ajay] Maken will take the appropriate decision viz-a-viz Rajasthan," he said.

On the Cabinet reshuffle, Pilot said the party will take a decision taking into consideration factors like "experience, credibility, performance, regional balance and caste combination".

He expressed confidence that the party high command will address the issues that he had raised a year ago.

Lakhimpur probe: SC gives UP govt time till Monday

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
NEW DELHI, NOVEMBER 12

THE SUPREME Court on Friday granted time till November 15 to the Uttar Pradesh government for apprising its stand on the suggestion that a former judge of a "different high court" should monitor the state SIT probe in the Lakhimpur Kheri violence in which eight persons, including four farmers, were killed on October 3.

"I have almost got it worked out. Please give me time till Monday or Tuesday," senior advocate Harish Salve, appearing for the UP government, told the bench headed by Chief Justice N V Ramana.

"List on Monday," said the bench which included justices Surya Kant and Hima Kohli.

On November 8, the court had expressed dissatisfaction over the probe, saying it was "not confident" and did not want the judicial commission appointed by the state government to continue. It had proposed the appointment of a retired judge from "a different High Court" to monitor the investigation till the chargesheets are filed.

"What appears to us is that this SIT (Special Investigation Team), somehow or the other, is unable to maintain an investigative distance between the cases. If this kind of process continues, it will be a case of weighing the oral evidence in one case against the other. To ensure that evidence... are recorded independently and there is no over-
